

PRESS RELEASE: Coluzzi Real Estate Merges with Sell Now Iowa

Des Moines, IA, Release: January 6, 2021. For Immediate Release

Coluzzi Real Estate and Sell Now Iowa have announced today the planned merger of their business operations to offer a focused and unified real estate solution to the Des Moines market starting on Jan 1st, 2021. Coluzzi Real Estate will merge with Sell Now Iowa in all fashions. Coluzzi Real Estate will go under all Sell Now Iowa Branding.

When asked why the merger was happening, Mitch had the perfect response, “We had a lot of success with Coluzzi Real Estate. We had success in Indiana, Illinois and Des Moines. We love Des Moines and live in the metro ourselves, but to fully hit the ground running with re-shaping Des Moines, we needed this merger. The success and tools from Coluzzi Real Estate go hand-in-hand with Sell Now Iowa.

The goals of Sell Now Iowa stay the same: Be the simple solution for people in Des Moines who need to get rid of their home fast. We want to keep growing and re-developing the stressed areas of the Des Moines Metro. This city has character along with the people of Des Moines, we are just trying to show that. With that being said, this merger allows us to achieve our goal of bringing stable construction jobs for some of the people in Des Moines. It also allows local real estate agents to shine and grow through our referral program.”

Owner Mitch Coluzzi went on to say “It has been a fun ride with Coluzzi Real Estate since this is where we got our start. This is why we are even at the point to merge and keep growing the Des Moines community. I want to thank you to everybody we have done business with in-terms of the sellers we worked with, real estate agents, and contractors. We look forward to working with everybody in 2021 with Sell Now Iowa”
